- d. any member desiring to speak at general meetings or in the Committee of the Whole shall rise in their place and when called upon by the chair shall address the chair. If two or more members rise simultaneously, the chair shall call upon the member who first caught the eye of the chair;
- e. when the chair rises to speak any member standing shall sit down;
- f. except in committee, no member other than the proposer of a motion or an amendment shall speak to it until it has been seconded. A motion or amendment lapsing for want of a seconder shall not be recorded in the minutes;
- g. a motion or amendment before the chair shall not be withdrawn except by its mover and by leave of the meeting. No motion shall be withdrawn while any amendment is under discussion or after any amendment has been adopted;
- h. if required to do so by the chair, the proposer of any motion or amendment shall submit it in writing;

An amendment shall constitute a separate question from the original motion and from any other amendment;
- k. a member moving a motion or amendment shall be deemed to have spoken to it. A member seconding a motion or amendment without speaking to it may reserve the right to speak to it subsequently;
- l. when an amendment is before the chair, discussion shall be confined to that amendment. No further amendment shall be proposed until the amendment before the chair has been disposed of;
- m. the chair shall, as far as practical, call on speakers for and against a motion or amendment alternatively, subject to the right of the seconder to speak immediately after the mover. If two consecutive speakers have both argued for or against a motion or an amendment, and there is no member wishing to argue the opposite view, or, in the case of a motion, to move an amendment, the motion or the amendment shall, subject, in the case of a motion, to the mover's right of reply, be put without further debate;

The chair shall have absolute discretion to accept or refuse the motion. The chair may also without returning a motion put the question if the chair feels that adequate discussion has taken place. In either case the mover of a motion shall retain the right of reply. If an amendment is before the chair, the closure motion shall be deemed to close the debate on the amendment only;
- r. a member may at any time move, "That the speaker be no longer heard" or, "That the speaker be heard for a further limited period only". Such motions shall be put without amendment or debate. No other motion, except the closure motion or a motion dealing with the speaker's time, shall be moved while a speaker has the floor;
- s. during the discussion of a motion (but not of an amendment), a member who has not already participated in the debate on the motion may move: "That the question be not now put." This motion shall be open to debate, and shall be debated together with the original motion. If carried, the original motion shall not be dealt with further. If lost, the original motion shall be put forthwith, subject to the mover's right of reply. The motion may be foreshadowed while an amendment is before the chair, but in no case shall it be put until all amendments have been disposed of;
- t. a member may move: "That the debate [or meeting] be now adjourned." Discussion shall be in order, but only amendments as to time and/or place shall be permitted. The motion shall take precedence over other business before the chair except points of order and personal explanations;

No member shall reflect on a clause in the association's rules or a standing order, except on a motion (of which due notice was given) to amend or repeal such rule or order;
- x. notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, any decision made by a validly constituted meeting shall not be void by reason only of a departure from these standing orders which was not detected until after the decision had been made;

- 9.6.4. Informal complaint handling approaches include:
- a. Step 1: Talk with the other person (if safe, reasonable and appropriate)
 - i If you feel confident and comfortable to do so, you can approach the other person to discuss the issues and try and resolve the problem directly.
 - b. Step 2: Inform your club's management committee
 - i If the complaint involves people operating at club level, then in the first instance talk to one of your club executives, if:
 - step 1 (above) is not appropriate;
 - you are not sure how to handle the problem by yourself;
 - you want to talk confidentially with someone and find out what options are available to address your concern; or
 - the concern continues after you approached the other person.
 - ii It is the responsibility of the club to ensure that:
 - they identify, prevent and address potential problems before they become formal grievances;
 - they are aware of and are committed to the principles of communicating and information sharing with their members and volunteers;
 - all decisions relating to organisational practices are made with consideration given for the individual as well as the organisation in general;

- any grievance is handled in the most appropriate manner at the earliest opportunity;
 - all members and volunteers are treated fairly and without fear of intimidation.
- c. Step 3: Inform the QSCA board
- i We encourage you to talk with one of QSCA board members if:
- step 2 (above) is not appropriate;
 - the concern continues after you approached the club.
- ii QSCA will:
- ask how you would like your concern to be resolved and if you need support;
 - seek to provide different options for you to address your concern;
 - act as or appoint a support person, if you wish;
 - refer you to an appropriate person (e.g. a mediator) to help you address your concern, if appropriate;
 - inform the relevant government authorities and/or police, if required by law to do so;
 - where possible and appropriate, maintain confidentiality.
- d. Step 4: Decide how to address your concern
- i After talking with QSCA, you may decide:
- there is no problem;
 - the problem is minor and you do not wish to take the matter forward;
 - to try and resolve the problem yourself, with or without a support person;
 - to resolve the problem with the help of someone impartial, such as a mediator; or
 - to forward the complaint to the national body, Sporting Clays Australia;
 - to resolve the matter through a formal process.

9.6.5. Formal approaches complaint handling approaches then include:

- a. Step 5: Making a formal complaint
- i If it is not possible or appropriate to resolve your complaint through an informal process, you may:

- make a formal complaint in writing to QSCA (see 12.1 or the QSCA website); or
 - approach a relevant external agency, such as an anti-discrimination or equal opportunity commission, for advice and assistance.
- ii After receiving a formal complaint, and based on the material you provide, QSCA will decide whether:
- the nature and seriousness of the complaint requires a formal resolution procedure;
 - to refer the complaint to mediation;
 - conduct a tribunal hearing with the Disciplinary Committee as per the process in the SCA Code of Conduct;
 - to refer the matter to the national body, Sporting Clays Australia;
 - to refer the matter to the police or other appropriate authority; and/or
 - to implement any interim arrangements that will apply until the complaint process is completed.
- iii In situations where a complaint is referred to our national body, Sporting Clays Australia and an investigation is conducted, the association will:
- co-operate fully;
 - ensure the complainant and respondent are not victimised;
 - where applicable, ensure the complainant is not placed in an unsupervised situation with the respondent(s); and
